BABY ONE SOLID SORE

Tried Everything without Relief. No Rest Night or Day. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

My baby, when two months old, had a breaking out with what the doctor called eczema. Her head, arms, feet, and hands were each one solid sore. I tried everything, but neither the doctors nor any thing else did her any good. We could get no rest day or night with her. In my extremity I tried the Cuticura Remedies, but I confess I had no faith in them, for I had never seen them tried. To my great surprise, in one week's time after beginning to use the Cuticura Remedies, the sores were well, but I continued to use the Cuticura Remedies for a little while, and now she is as fat a baby as you would like to see, and as sound as a dollar. I believe my baby would have died if I had not tried Cuticura Remedies. I write this that every mother with a baby like mine can feel confident that there is a medicine that will cure the worst eczema, and that medicine is the Cuticura Remedies.

ANOTHER OREGON CITY STRIKE.—The operatives of the weaving room in the woolen mills at Oregon City went out on a strike again Monday, claiming that the company is acting in bad faith relative to the recent strike, which was arbitrated, the owners claim that the help was trying to run their business, and say the hands can stay out as long as they like.

TO IMPROVE THE UPPER RIVER.—There is a scheme on foot in Eugene to raise $3,000, to dredge the bars and clear the river of snags from that city to Harrisburg. Above Harrisburg the river is better, being narrower and deeper, and if the money is raised the question of the upper river navigation for light-draft boats will be solved.

ACROSS THE DEEP, TO THE FAR WEST.

On steamboats, cars and stage-coaches, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is carried as the most important item in the materia medica of the traveling public. It deprives vitiated, brackish water of its harmful properties and exerts a powerful, counteracting influence on the stomach of bad or indigestible food, remedies cramps, heartburn and wind upon the stomach. It is a fluid defense against malarial disorders, nullifies the effects of excessive heat, cold and dampness, relieves rheumatism, and is an incomparable cure for constiveness and biliousness. The fatigue of travel often leads most disastrously upon invalids and convalescents, occasionally to such an extent as to jeopardize life. Persons in feeble health, apprehensive of bad effects from travel, will, if provided with the Bitters, be far less likely to have their fears realized.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS.—The undersigned wants a number of fawns and young elk. A good price will be paid. C. B. WELLS, Philomath, Or.

Work on the Portland-Corvallis telephone line through this city is progressing rapidly and will be completed to this point in a short time. The first of this week the pits for the poles were dug as far as the graveyard this side of Hillsboro, the poles were set to the Hillsboro city limits on the other side, and the wires, two substantial copper ones, were strung to a point about half mile farther back. The line follows the wagon road. There is a full force of men pushing the work, and ere long the people of Forest Grove will be enabled to say "Hello!" to those of the metropolis and intervening towns. The telephone line has arrived in Forest Grove and will be on the way to Corvallis before the paper reaches our readers.—Forest Grove Times.

Invitations were issued by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue to a number of their friends to meet their aunt Mrs. Crawford, of Indiana, who is visiting her sister, Mr. Hogue's mother last Tuesday evening. This is the first time in fifteen years that the two sisters have met and the short time spent here has been very pleasant to her. Mrs. Crawford is favorably impressed with Oregon, especially with Corvallis and vicinity. She expects to return home about the middle of the month.
